

E aku nui, e aku rahi, tēnā koutou katoa,

Ara nui, ara roa, ara ake rā. A great journey, an extended journey, a revealing journey.

Nau mai, haere mai whanaunga ma kia hui tahi e tatou ki nga kaimahi o Te Whare Taonga o Ngā Pākihi Whakatekateka o Waitaha, mo te whakamōhio i to rātou nei mahere rautaki. Kei roto i wēnei kōrero nga mahi e pa ana ki te whare whakairo, Hau Te Ananui o Tangaroa.

The team from Canterbury Museum are coming to hui with whānau, hapu and iwi members about their exciting new 5-year redevelopment. This includes the reinstallation of the whare whakairo, Hau Te Ananui o Tangaroa.

Hau Te Ananui o Tangaroa was first commissioned in the early 1860s by Rangatira, Hēnare Pōtae.

The Museum team will present on the opportunities the redevelopment offers as well as their work on the whare to date. This includes how it is a central part of the new redevelopment, their commitment to cultural partnership with whānau and hapu, the rich related history of the whare and whānau engagement. The current hauora of the whare will be presented in relation to the mahi ahead towards re-installation.

The Canterbury Museum team include Kaiurungi Puamiria Parata-Goodall, Deputy Director and Head of Collections and Research Sarah Murray, Curator Māori, Pacific & Indigenous Human Histories Hatesa Seumanutafa, Lead Conservator Emily Fryer and, Ōhāki o Ngā Tīpuna (Māori museum advisory komiti) representative, Corban Te Aika.

Image: Architectural illustration of Hau Te Ananui o Tangaroa in proposed centralised location in the new redeveloped Museum. ©Athfield Architects

Programme (Hosted by Pourau Incorporation in conjunction with Pakirikiri Marae).

Te wa: Friday, 15th March 2024

Te wahi: Pakirikiri Marae, 4 Hikurangi Street, Tokomaru Bay, entry via the carpark off Beach Road.

Powhiri: 1.30pm, followed by afternoon tea.

Orientation and site visit to locations of cultural significance for guests from Canterbury Museum.

Dinner: Te Puka Tavern 5pm.

Saturday, 16th March 2024

Te wa: 10.00am assemble at Pakirikiri Marae

10.15: Karakia and acknowledgements

Programme:

Speaker	Position	Topic	Time
Sarah Murray	Head of Collections and Research/Deputy Director.	Canterbury Museum redevelopment.	25 minutes
Puamiria Parata-Goodall	Kaiurungi, Ōhākī o Ngā Tīpuna, Canterbury Museum.	The Cultural Journey.	25 minutes
Hatesa Seumanutafa	Curator Māori, Pacific & Indigenous Human Histories.	The history of Hau Te Ananui o Tangaroa.	25 minutes
Hatesa Seumanutafa Emily Fryer	Curator Māori, Pacific & Indigenous Human Histories. Conservator.	The conservation, care and display of Hau Te Ananui o Tangaroa.	35 minutes

NB: Q&A will follow each presentation.

Lunch will be provided during the programme.

Acknowledgments and closing Karakia.

Dinner for guests at Te Puka Tavern.